Angela's world changed when a tall, dark, and handsome, African American man spoke to her. He intrigued her and she was hesitant. She had to explore the chance as he was nothing like anyone of her past. Angela's Caucasian circle wasn't openly accepting. Her best friend of many years disliked the new interest and pushed her to stay with people of her complexion. Angela faced a battle of desire and intrigue, and forced the issue of acceptance by dating three likely candidates. Her journey to self discovery ended at the cross roads for true love or social acceptance.
