Route 66 Magazine Publishing introduces a two-volume set destined to become the authority for Roadies of the world seeking the classic adventure of traveling the fabled Mother Road. The first volume is The Complete Guidebook to Route 66. A uniquely designed book that covers the Mother Road in both directions, east-to-west and west-to-east, finally providing accurate information for Roadies starting that "Route 66 Trip" from either Chicago or Los Angeles. Mile-by-mile directions provide the most detailed information available on the sights, locations and people of the Route 66 of today. Authors Bob Moore and Rich Cunningham have more than twenty years of experience in chronicling Route 66 and this volume is the culmination of over two years of research and road trips to accurately describe the adventure of finding virtually every alignment of the Old Highway. The second volume is The Complete Atlas of Route 66. With over 270 full-color, high-resolution color topo maps and hundreds of GPS (Global Positioning System) waypoints keyed to the narrative in The Complete Guidebook to Route 66 provides the traveling Roadie with the most accurate mapping ever produced of the Route 66 of today. Included are Adventure Tours - some requiring four-wheel drive vehicles for the true aficionados desiring to find and explore the long abandoned sections of the most famous highway in the world. A two-volume set, soft cover.
