Lele Kawa: Fire Rituals of Pele Tangaro Taupouri

The mele contained in this book are fundamental to hula Pele and reflect a vast and dynamic Hawai'i worldview. These mele have been preserved for centuries via oral traditions, the sacred hula of Hawai'i, and more recently, in twentieth-century written texts.

Lele Kawa offers original translations and provocative interpretations of the Pele literature from a practitioner's perspective. The author's work is based on generations of ancestral connections and years of immersion in the fiery aihua dances of the hula Pele.

This work was originally published by I Ola Ha'loa, Hawai'i Community College.
