Vicky is an international superstar with a top pop hit. Her private plane goes down over the Canadian wilderness and all are presumed dead in the crash... Vicky wakes up in a strange man's cabin and finds herself face to face with the most attractive woodsman she's ever seen. Vicky tries to keep her identity a secret from Justin, the charming Canadian man who has rescued her. But she can't keep the secret for long when people from her past force her to return to the life she left behind. Can their love survive while they're on the run from people who will stop at nothing to keep Vicky enslaved by her record label?
