The death of his dear wife Gertrude caused Elias Schrock to turn into a bitter, stingy, old man who no longer saw any reason to believe in God. As a result, the relationship with his only son turned sour and as soon as Elias saw his chance he kicked his son out of the house, hoping to find peace, but instead all he found was more misery. But on Christmas Eve all that was about to change. After Elias' buggy broke down in the forest during a blizzard he knew he would freeze to death unless help would come quickly. That's when he heard a voice and saw a light. A series of strange happenings were about to touch his hardened heart and teach the old man the real spirit of Christmas. 'Amish Scrooge: A Wondrous Christmas Eve' is part of the Amish Christmas Tales Series – a collection of classic Christmas Tales with an unforgettable Amish twist.
