Canadian troops in Belgium and France, because I realized that a great many other men had seen quite as much as I, and could beat me telling about it. Of course, I believed that my experience was worth relating, and I thought that the matter published in the newspapers by professional writers sort of missed the essentials and lacked the spirit of the ditches in a good many ways despite its excellent literary style, but I didnt see any reason why it was up to me to make an effort as a war historian, until now.
