When General Motors and Chrysler declared bankruptcy in 2009 and immediately targeted thousands of dealerships for closure, tens of thousands of jobs and billions of dollars were on the line.

Staring down two of the largest manufacturers in the world as well as President Obama's Automotive Task Force, a determined triumvirate of car dealers banded together and went to Washington, D.C. to make their voices heard.

Alan Spitzer's fast-paced memoir takes readers behind the scenes as citizen's lobbyists traverse throughout all of the major corridors of power in the nation's capital to make their case and bring justice to thousands of small business across the country.

Join Spitzer on his journey as he creates a grassroots movement to overturn the government's illegal and outrageous terminations and as he gets a bill passed through a bitterly partisan House and Senate!

The grassroots effort was directly responsible for saving hundreds of dealerships and tens of thousands of jobs, said Spitzer.

The Academic Edition includes an expanded Appendices that have been provided to assist interested readers with a thorough understanding of all the documents involved in this event.
