Every minister, especially if a pastor, meets with Christians who suffer spiritual trials, of various forms and degrees of intensity. His solicitude as a conscientious and affectionate watchman for souls, is awakened for such; while he yet feels uncertain on the precise counsels to be given, for their instruction and relief. A book therefore, which can be put into their hands, adapted to their necessities; which they can read repeatedly; by which they can examine their own hearts; over which they can pray; through the aid of which they can understand the causes of their sorrows, and find their way out of perplexity and darkness, into light and comfort, cannot fail to be esteemed of great worth. A book of such a character, it is believed, will be found in the present little volume. It will subserve the two-fold purpose of guarding Christians against the devices of their adversary; and preventing discomfort and mistakes relative to their spiritual state. The biographical sketch of the venerable author will apprise the reader how well qualified he was to deal with cases of spiritual per-

Not only the private Christian but the minister will find this little work worthy of frequent perusal. As the physician avails himself of the books of experienced and skillful practitioners: so the Christian minister feels it a privilege to avail himself of the results of the studies, experience and observation of his fathers and brethren, who have been wise and successful in their treatment of the cases of afflicted and tender-spirited Christians.
