Warm your heart with this perfect Christmas love story

Lucie Quigley hates Christmas. It's the time of year when everything goes wrong in her life. So this year, when she's asked to be a bridesmaid at her friend Petra's Manhattan wedding, she jumps at the invitation to escape the festivities.

Dale Treharne has been best friends with Lucie for as long as he can remember. He's used to looking out for his oldest friend and when she asks him to be her plus one, he can't seem to find a reason to refuse. Instead, he sees it as a way to help Lucie get through what is, for her, the most miserable time of the year.

In New York, as the snow starts to fall, Lucie and Dale start to realise that their feelings run deeper than just friendship. But can they overcome their pasts, and make it a very merry Manhattan Christmas?
