In the near future, a few young women manifest extraordinary abilities called "Shine." Each girl's ability is different. Some develop extraordinary mental abilities. Some become physically strong. Others have powers that defy description. But the world does not embrace these Shines. It fears them. Camille's life hasn't been the same since her parents' traumatic murder-suicide. In the aftermath, an intruder breaks into her home. Why? Camille discovers a mysterious thumb drive hidden in her father's office and realizes the unwanted changes in her life are just beginning. Caught in a spider's web of politics and conspiracy, betrayal and abduction, Camille discovers that the world is changing and hiding is not an option. Not even for Shines.
