Can New York City Money Meet Texas Cowboy in the Middle? Jake Goodall is a Texas bull rider who's used to keeping his preference for men under wraps. Brent Miller is as wealthy New York businessman who has never had to hide. When Brent's car breaks down in Jake's hometown, the two of them begin a romance that might be hazardous to their health, in more ways than one. Danger lurks in the small minds of folks who'd rather not see Jake and Brent together, and sooner or later, fists are going to fly. From the prairies of Texas to the lights of New York and back again, from western rodeos to big city gay bars to a courtroom in Dallas, Jake and Brent work through all of the problems they think they can face, their need for each other overriding the difficulties they go through. Jake knows he's got it bad when he stays with Brent through thick and thin, but can the bull rider from the Lone Star State and the businessman from New York buck the odds to stay together? Author Alexa Snow says, "This is a great book... the story moves along quickly, keeping the reader's interest without feeling rushed. A very satisfying read; don't miss it!"
