Jasmine doesn't care how she got Mason, all that matters now is that her dream of becoming his wife is finally coming true. Everything seems to be perfect, until she receives a delivery of dead flowers and a cryptic note on her wedding day. Is someone trying to end her marriage before it even begins? Just as Pastor Jacob's life seems to have returned to normal, he is sent to Tampa, Florida to help with the rebuilding of a historical church. Jacob is worried how Elm Street Baptist will function under the direction of his temporary replacement: Gabriel Jerome. Gabriel is young, fearless and has a very unconventional way of worshiping. Will this time away from Elm Street be just what Jacob needs? And will the congregation thrive or barely survive his absence?
