BioShock: Rapture John Shirley

It's the end of World War II. FDR's New Deal has redefined American politics. Taxes are at an all-time high. The bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki has brought a fear of total annihilation. The rise of secret government agencies and sanctions on business has many watching their backs. America's sense of freedom is diminishing . . . and many are desperate to take that freedom back.

Among them is a great dreamer, an immigrant who pulled himself from the depths of poverty to become one of the wealthiest and admired men in the world. That man is Andrew Ryan, and he believed that great men and women deserve better. And so he set out to create the impossible, a utopia free from government, censorship, and moral restrictions on science--where what you give is what you get. He created Rapture---the shining city below the sea.

But as we all know, this utopia suffered a great tragedy. This is the story of how it all came to be . . .and how it all ended.

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this BioShock: Rapture can make you really feel more interested to read.
