The Complete Anthology of Motorcycle Road Racing Lines Ed Bargy

This book is a thorough and comprehensive look at the various racing lines used for motorcycle road racing. It covers all the different types of lines for all the different types of turns from the simple basic race line to the multiple apex lines. It will explain when and where each line, will work, and where they don't work, due to the situation and racers' needs. The reasons one line may be better than another due to what is before or directly after each turn. Even how size and horsepower of the bike will affect the type of line used is discussed.
