Against All Odds Tyler daSilva

This book was written during November of 2012, which is the month Nanowrimo is held. During this month I was in the midst of a severe concussion. This book not only can help those affected by alcoholism, but can be used as a tool for everyday life. Unlike my usual writing this book is straightforward and simplistic; however, this is not a bad thing because sometimes it needs to be in this form. Although simple it holds a deeper meaning and this is the first of many books that I will publish. Everyday be you and let yourself shine through. Although not my best writing or most elegant, I decided to publish this because although I had a concussion this is a great achievement. Have faith in who you were yesterday, who you are today, and who you can become tomorrow. Life isn't about finding yourself it's about creating yourself. I publish this in hopes it will help and later on another book will come out. From the author who isn't afraid to publish his writing that may not be his best, Tyler daSilva
