EVEN TRUE LOVE CAN WITHER The passionate kisses matter. The warm embrace of those constant hugs can be very assuring. However, beyond the passion and romance, love has serious demands and Marriage is not always fun. More often than not, the woman seems to bear more of the brunt when those “overlooked” foundational problems start to appear. This book offers insights on a few basic diligence-checks you must engage in when you want to make that choice of who to spend the rest of your life with. Make your choice slowly and wisely. Contemplate with discretion and investigate with caution before you take that leap into matrimony!
