Music - The Business: The Essential Guide to the Law and the Deals Ann Harrison

In the only major book of its kind that comprehensively covers music law in the UK, here are fascinating studies of cases involving some of the greatest British stars, including Elton John, Robbie Williams and George Michael. And although the focus may be the UK, this book is fascinating, essential reading to everyone who wants to be in the music business - and everyone already there. From bedroom demo to arena tour, the impact and the potential pitfalls of new media and the Internet, this book tells you everything you need to know about protecting your rights and maximise your earning. It is the definitive guide to the music industry - by a lawyer who's been in the business for over 15 years.

This is the only book of it's kind specifically about the music law in the UK. It includes everything a young person making his or her way in the record business needs to know. The author, Ann Harrison, is a practising media lawyer since 1983 and has unparalleled credibility.
