The Rise of the Greek Epic: Being a Course of Lectures Delivered at Harvard University (Classic Reprint) Gilbert Murray

Excerpt from The Rise of the Greek Epic: Being a Course of Lectures Delivered at Harvard University
These lectures were written in response to an invitation from Harvard University to deliver the Gardiner Lane Course for 1907. Only some half of them were actually so delivered. The subject had been so long forming itself in my mind, and I was also so anxious not to allow any mere lack of pains to prove me unworthy of the honour thus offered me, that I soon found my material completely outrunning the bounds of the proposed course. I print the whole book; but I must confess that those parts of it which were spoken at Harvard have, if it is not egotistical to say so, a special place in my affections, through their association with the constant and most considerate kindness of Mr. And Mrs. Lane and of many others who became in varying degrees my menoi in America.
