With a unique and timely perspective into Christianity and culture, Olu Robbin-Coker invites us into his personal journey of faith in a way that illumines our own. From his native Sierra Leone to his adopted Scotland, this fresh voice from the global church speaks powerfully to the challenge of living an authentic Christian life in a postmodern world. Grounded in the loving heart of God and the power of Scripture, Manifesto calls us to embrace the full message of the gospel and the simplicity of following Jesus model of sacrifice, humility, and reliance on the Spirit. It is an invitation to look up to God, down into yourself, in to the church, and out to culture and the world at large.
