Miracles of a Greater Kind Marcia Ann Smith

The author writes from personal experience about life's tragedies and triumphs from losing her mother as a child, to the devastating loss of her young son, and then her own cancer crisis a few short years later. She confronts some tough questions about life such as, "Why do some receive the answers to prayer when others seemingly drown in the depths of despair of a silent God?" The author, having lived both scenarios, provides a transparent view into her personal struggle to understand life's purpose and how she eventually came to experience supernatural peace. This autobiography travels four decades to discover some unmistakable truths about God's provision. Sometimes these provisions come in the form of miracles. Sometimes those miracles are dramatic and profound, other times they are subtle, but they are always divine. Discover the Miracles of a Greater Kind.
