Every relationship faces problems that cause hurt and misunderstanding, hot topics that predictably lead to blow-ups or meltdowns. Sex or spending, dinnertime or discipline, issues large and small rob relationships of harmony and happiness. Some partners escalate and vent, while others avoid and deny. Whether communication is stalled or out of control, "Take it to the Cross" offers hope for real and lasting harmony. It energizes the relationship while supplying safety and order, while involving the participants emotionally, intellectually, spiritually and even physically. With step-by-step instruction, peace becomes possible. For the first time, couples find hope and courage to walk together - two as one as psychiatrist and pastor Paul Looney leads step by step through a transformational process, changing forever the way couples relate to conflict and each other. Join thousands who have used this method for restoring unity and enhancing intimacy.
