Nia loves playing with her grandmother Nana, but has a hard time imagining that Nana was ever a child.

Grandma Had a Grandma Too takes the reader on a journey back in time with a young Nana and her own grandmother...fishing at the creek, chasing fireflies at dusk, eating blackberries from the backyard and more. This story affirms that the simplest times we share with a child can create the most beloved and cherished memories.

Grandma Had a Grandma Too appeals to children ages 3 - 8 years old, but older children and adults will love it as well. The simplicity of the language is perfect for reading aloud as a bedtime or anytime story.

There are also some bonus features in the book: A Family Tree for children to complete their own family's history, and Fun Facts about Grandma, where they can write down their Grandma's favorite things.
