Landmark Study Skills Guide Joan Sedita

This book provides practical teaching strategies for teachers and parents working with students who are unable to organize themselves, take adequate notes, use their textbooks efficiently, or study on a regular basis. The book includes chapters covering organization, main idea, notetaking, summarizing, textbook, test preparation, and report-writing skills. Sample assignments and "How To" lists for students to follow are included throughout. There is also a chapter for students and their parents which offers suggestions for becoming a more independent learner. (Appropriate for middle and secondary school learners.)
