Scribbles on the Wall: Lessons Along the Way Evan Sutter

'In today's world people are so busy chasing after unrealistic imaginary dreams. They sacrifice today for a better tomorrow, along the way sacrificing all that is important to them - their friends and family, their passions and interests and they don't even know why; instead succumbing to the abundance of illusionary social expectations programmed into us since birth.' Scribbles on the wall is a reflection on life through experiences, observations, mistakes, regrets and successes, provoking debate, fostering ideas and raising opinion on everyday happenings; from alcohol and drugs to sex and religion, work, community and study to health, travel and friendship. Evan Sutter's latest work give a candid view of an obtainable life path in given with observed morals and teachings from tantric Zen to the anecdotes and parables from people of peace, and serves as a positive guide to reflect and better your subconscious.
