When both parents of twelve-year-old Tanner Jansen are deployed to Afghanistan, Tanner and his little sister stay with their grandmother in a tiny Montana village. While there Tanner learns lifelong lessons about trusting God as he encounters adventures with wild wolves, runaway dogsleds, and school bullies. Delightful characters and fascinating places make this an adventure for the reader. Featuring pictures of Montana's 2006 Race To The Sky. Sheri Schofield has dedicated her life to teaching young people and children about Jesus. She has studied theology and the Christian education of children at Prairie Bible Institute and Biola University and has worked in children's and youth ministries for over twenty years. Sheri believes that the future of America depends on helping today's youth become dynamic leaders. Her writing and teaching are dedicated to that purpose.
