These puzzles have been formatted for those who don't want too much of a challenge from their word search puzzles. Words are only arranged horizontally and vertically and only read forwards, not backwards. There are no diagonals or overlaps, although words still intersect, as in a normal word search puzzle. Formatted in 24 point Verdana font this book has been designed for people who have very poor eyesight and the answers are presented in the same font as the puzzles, which cover a wide variety of topics.
