Sometimes a seat change on a flight can change more than your destination... Ellie Peavey is flying to Scotland on a business trip when she serendipitously gets seated next to Patrick Sievert. As in Patrick "The Mad Monk" Sievert, internationally famous soccer alpha hunk, who is on his way to Scotland as well, for his own brand of business. What starts as a simple conversation turns into a whirlwind trip around the United Kingdom. They'll both live the love story of a lifetime in a matter of days, full of adventure, intense physical connection, and the stuff that Ellie is only used to reading about in the thousands of books that line the shelves of her Atlanta apartment. Before Ellie knows it, she's thrust into Patrick's wild and exotic life, and from the crowds, to the games, to the bedroom, she's never felt so alive. But when Patrick's career takes a less than stellar turn and Ellie begins to feel the extreme pressures of being the love interest of a global superstar, both begin to wonder if either of them have what it takes to make the love of a lifetime work in a world that seems intent on keeping them apart.
