Loves Labours Lost William Shakespeare

This Arden third series edition of "Love's Labour's Lost" offers a distinctive interpretation of the play. It gives full commentary and pays close attention to its verbal and theatrical patterning and to Shakespeare's interest in linguistic innovation. The text has been edited from the 1598 Quarto, with reference to the First Folio of 1623, and sets the work in the literary context of the 1590s.
