From inside front flap: California Legacy is the story of a family and a region over more than a century and a half of dynamic growth and change. Its focus is upon the union of an American adventurer, James Alexander Watson, and a Californian of Spanish Descent, Maria Dolores Dominguez, in the Tumultuous 1850s following the Mexican War. Dolores' family was the first to receive a land grant in southern California -- the Rancho San Pedro--and also to receive a ranch patent signed by the President to the United States.
