JAGUAR is one of Britain's best-known, most distinctive car-makers. Since 1928 this world-famous company has played an important role in the working life of Coventry. This illustrated history offers a fascinating insight into the company and the city. It tells the story of the fluctuating fortunes of the company at Browns Lane, and offers a revealing account of car production techniques and processes at Jaguar as they have evolved over the years. The book also offers an intimate portrait of the local people who have depended on Jaguar for their livelihoods, for generations.
