Liar, Liar, Mullet On Fire: Extinguishing Lies We Believe with God's Truth Ketric Newell

We're all susceptible to Satan's deceptions, but the lies we buy in to at a young age may have a destructive impact on the rest of our lives. The Enemy wants students to acknowledge a lie, believe it, and act on it until it becomes their truth and they're imprisoned by it.

Youth pastor Ketric Newell has met a lot of students who struggle with serious lies about addictions, self-injury, and body image, all of which keep them trapped. But Jesus came to set the captives free.

Liar, Liar, Mullet On Fire shows students where deceptions come from, how to recognize them, and what it's like to live in the freedom available through Christ.

- Includes application questions
- Teaches youth how to trade lies for truth and freedom in Christ
- Contains a resource section that guides readers through the steps of accepting Christ
