By the Author of Stardancer and The Seer!

In a time when even saints face the flames, Isabella Beaufort's visions give her good reason to fear. She tries desperately to keep her gift secret, but when whispers race through the English court that King Henry has been enchanted, Isabella's only hope is to flee north to a marriage arranged by her cousin, Queen Joan of Scotland.

No one in the Highlands has more reason to hate the Scottish king than Colyne MacKimzie and he knows the queen's cousin will bring a rich ransom. While holding Isabella captive, Colyne learns her secret, but now he is hiding one of his own--he cannot bear to be parted from this haunted, dark-eyed woman. But Isabella's visions show her terrifying images of Colyne as King James's murderer--and her own as well. Colyne and Isabella's frantic efforts to alter the future she sees only twist their path closer toward the infamous murder of a king and their own destruction.

Interwoven with actual historical events, Another Man's Bride is a tale of magic, court intrigues and a love that even fate is powerless to break . . .
