Bride Bandit: Book Three (Mail Order Brides of the West) (Volume 3) Katie Cartwright

STAND-ALONE BOOK. DOES NOT NEED TO BE READ IN ORDER.

Scarlet sat in the dirt and dangled her legs over the edge of the grave. "What do we got to show for this robbery? Seven dollars, a few pieces of jewelry, a satchel full of mail, and another dead man! When do you say to yourself that enough is enough? Don't you want more out of this life than stealin' and shootin'? I do." Her brother dumped out the contents of the mailbag. "I bet lots of these letters are full of money. People send money to their families all the time." He tore open one of the letters, read a few lines, and then tossed it at his sister. "This one is for you! You want out so bad? Go be a mail order bride. That poor sap is lookin' to get hitched. Maybe that's the life for ya--marryin' a stranger instead of staying with yer family."
