When the author, Des Corry, searched the Vancouver Library for a book on Jimmy McLarnin, BC's only World Boxing Champion and Canada's greatest boxer, he was shocked to find that none had been written. There was a time when everyone knew of Jimmy McLarnin. Not so now. They should. Determined to remedy this, he spent time with Jim at his home, his club, and with friends of his boxing days. This book is the result of countless hours of research and interviews, presented in a highly readable manner by a knowledgeable wordsmith.
