In this book, companies can realize substantial savings with the help of one of the industry's experts. The book shows how to develop a travel policy and "get a handle" on spending. Readers discover how much they currently overpay in travel expenses as well as how to: select a vendor and negotiate the lowest possible rates; take advantage of money-saving travel opportunities; decide whether or not to set up an in-house travel service; collect and report travel management data; and design the ideal reporting and payment methods.
