And Then Came You... Jacqueline M. Vasquez

I have learned that life is unpredictable and the universe has a strange sense of humor of putting someone right in front of you at just the wrong time. I have always had this strong urge to go against fate. I feel like I shouldn't be controlled and that my life should be what I desire and not what it is destined to be. That I should have say as to where I end up and not just follow a path that was made for me but then you walked in front of every bad decision I have ever made and now I know that I've been fated to do things I would have chosen anyway.
