The Songs of Richard Rodgers, Low Voice Richard Rodgers

(Vocal Collection). The most accomplished composer in the history of the American musical theatre was Richard Rodgers (1902-1979), with a professional career on Broadway that spanned more than 50 years. In an edition designed especially for singers, 45 songs have been carefully chosen from both the Rodgers & Hart and Rodgers & Hammerstein output. The accompaniments support the singer, rather than containing the melody in the piano part throughout, as in the standard sheet music editions of these songs. Most of these songs are transposed for the first time ever in this new collection. The song selection is almost the same for High Voice and Low Voice; a very few major songs that are especially voice-type specific have not been transposed (for example, "Soliloquy" from Carousel in Low Voice, "My Lord and Master" from The King and I in High Voice). Highlights: Bewitched * Do I Love You Because You're Beautiful? * Falling in Love with Love * I Have Dreamed * If I Loved You * Isn't It Romantic? * It Might as Well Be Spring * My Favorite Things * My Funny Valentine * Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin' * Some Enchanted Evening * Something Wonderful * Ten Cents a Dance * Thou Swell * To Keep My Love Alive * Where or When * You'll Never Walk Alone.

Carol Stripling:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Songs of Richard Rodgers, Low Voice can make you experience more interested to read.
