Tina reflected on how she had been used by the man she loved. The crushing weight of his deception overwhelmed her, leaving only her pain. She raised her head toward Chicago and whispered, "I am not your summer diversion." In a final act of letting him go, she held the bracelet over the water, turned her hand slowly and let it fall away. Could she love again? Would the man who loved her once love her again? The Summer Tourist, A Christian Romance, is set in the city of South Haven MI with it's sandy Lake Michigan beaches and iconic lighthouse. As part of the Haven Series, this book examines love and love lost. Can a discarded love ever be restored
